General Information

Each winning pull tab and jar game must be predetermined. The price for participating in such games can be no more than two dollars, and each prize awarded can be no more than $500. No more than 6,000 tickets may be sold per game.

What is the deadline for filing this return?

You must file this return and pay any tax due on or before the twentieth day following the end of the occasion for which this limited license was issued. For example, if you are filing this return for an occasion ending March 31, it is due on or before April 20.

What if I fail to file this return and pay the amount I owe?

You owe a late-filing penalty if you do not file a processable return by the due date, a late-payment penalty if you do not pay the tax you owe by the date the tax is due, and a bad check penalty if your remittance is not honored by your financial institution. Interest is calculated on tax from the day after the original due date of your return through the date you pay the tax. We will bill you for penalties and interest. For more information about penalties and interest, see Publication 103, Uniform Penalties and Interest. To receive a copy of this publication, visit our Web site at www.revenue.state.il.us or call us at 1 800 356-6302.

In addition to imposing penalties and interest, we may suspend or revoke your pull tabs license.
